

A day in Happy Farm - Good work

👉 By 3A Chan Yuk Wai, James

Today I go to Happy Farm with my parents. The weather is sunny. We feel excited.

I can see some strawberries and watermelons in the farm. Dad wants to choose some vegetables. Mum takes some photos. We are happy.

After that, I go to the pond. Some children are throwing stones to the ducks. They are scared.

I am angry. 'Stop! Don't throw stones!' I shout. The children listen to me. They say sorry and promise me not to do it again. I forgive the children. In the end, I play with the children.
