

A day in the market

By 3C Jodi Cheng

It is Sunday. Peter and his mum go to Tai Tai Market because they want to buy some fruit.

Then they go to a fruit shop to choose apples for Peter's birthday party. The apples look yummy. There is a girl in the shop. She is choosing apples, too.

After that, Peter sees a man. He stands near the girl. Oh no! He is stealing the girl's purse. Peter is puzzled.

He thinks of an idea. He runs to Mum and says, 'There is a thief!' Mum calls the police. At last, the police come and catch the thief.

A day in the market

It is Sunday. Peter and his mum go out at seven o'clock. They go to Tai Tai Market. They want to buy some fruit for a birthday party.

They go to a fruit shop to buy some apples. They are choosing some apples. There is a woman named Miss Lau. She is choosing some apples, too.

Suddenly, Peter sees a thief trying to steal Miss Lau's purse. He stands next to the woman. Peter is scared.

Then Peter tells his mum about seeing the thief and asks her to call the police. Peter says, 'There is a thief!' The police come and catches the thief before he goes away. The police give the purse back to Miss Lau. Miss Lau says, 'Thank you!' Peter feels great and happy.
