Making a cake   By 5B Lisa Lin Hei Wai

Last Saturday, I was busy in cooking in the kitchen. I tried to make a cake as that day was my dad's birthday. I didn't know how to make a cake so my mum helped me. With Mum's help, I mixed the ingredients and poured them into a mould carefully.

When I finished all the steps, I put the cake mixture into an oven and set the timer. 'Bake the cake for thirteen minutes,' Mum said. Then she cleaned the table. However, I set the timer to

A moment later, some smoke came out of the oven. I rushed to the kitchen and discovered that the cake was burnt. I was down in the mouth. Then I cried. Mum comforted me, 'Don't be upset. There's still time.'

When we were about to start making the cake again, the doorbell suddenly rang. Mum and I opened the door. It was my grandma! She said, 'Hello everybody! Today is my son's birthday so I bought a birthday cake for him.' Mum and I startled. In the end, we celebrated Dad's birthday. We all had a wonderful time.
