

Birthday Present for David

By Julie Ho Ching Yau 3C

It is Saturday. It's David's birthday. Winnie and Joe want to buy David a present.

They go to Fun Toy Shop. Winnie says, 'Let's buy a toy car for David.' Joe says, 'OK!'

Then Winnie asks, 'How much is a toy car?' The saleslady says, 'It's fifty-five dollars.' Joe says, 'Oh no! We do not have enough money.' 'What should we do? Can we make a birthday cake?' Winnie asks. 'Yes, we can,' says Joe.

At last they give a birthday cake to David. David says, 'The cake is yummy, thank you.' They all have fun.

It is Saturday. Winnie and Joe are at home. Winnie says, 'Today is David's birthday. We need to buy some gifts for him.' 'OK,' says Joe.

Then they go to Fun Toy Shop. Winnie says, 'There are a lot of toys. I can't decide what to choose. What should we buy?' Joe says, 'We can call him and ask him what he wants.' 'OK!' says Winnie.

Then they call David. David says he wants a toy car, so Joe and Winnie choose a toy car but Joe has fifty dollars only. The toy car costs fifty-five dollars. Joe says, 'I don't know a toy car is so expensive.'

At last they go home to take five dollars more. They are late for David's party. They feel sorry for David, but David is glad to have a new toy car.

Birthday Present for David

It is Saturday. Winnie and Joe want to buy David a present because it is David's birthday.

Then they go to Fun Toy Shop. They want to buy a toy car. But they only have fifty dollars. The toy car is fifty-five dollars. Then Joe says, 'Oh no! We only have fifty dollars!' We can't buy the toy car!' Winnie and Joe feel sad.

And then, they see a robot duck. 'Hey, Joe! Look at this! It's a robot duck! It's on sale now. It is only forty-one dollars!' Winnie says. Joe says, 'I like it! Maybe David likes it too!'

The next day, they go to David's birthday party. They give the robot duck to David. He likes it very much. They all feel happy.
