

A Day in the Theme Park

By 6A Chung Tsun Yan Ryan

Hello Peter,

How are you? I went to Lo Theme Park with my parents yesterday and I almost got into an accident that made yesterday an unforgettable day.

It all started when my parents brought me to Lo Theme Park in the morning. We went there because I got very high grades in exam and they promised me to bring me there. It was very crowded yesterday. We queued for 3 hours to get the tickets only and it was very hot too. I felt like I could create a sea just by sweating.

After we entered the theme park, we went on rides, played on the bumper cars and spinning cups, and even went into the haunted house. After all these activities, it was getting late and the sky was darker. We decided to leave. When we were at the exit, I saw my favourite character Lo. I wanted to take a photo with him. When I was about to take the photo, a random kid crashed into Lo and Lo lost balance. Then he fell down and let go of the balloons in his hands. I was very scared and my body was frozen. I couldn't move at all. Luckily, Lo fell down on the man behind him. I didn't get hurt. However, the man who got hurt was my Chinese teacher! At last we sent them to the hospital.

When I went to school today, there were no Chinese lessons because my teacher is in the hospital.

How about you? Have you been in something unforgettable? Write back soon.

Best regards,

Jack

A Day in the Theme Park

Hi Peter,

How are you? I went to a theme park yesterday. It was an unforgettable day.

I went to Ocean Park with my family yesterday morning. The weather was hot and sunny. When we arrived at the entrance, we queued up because we needed to buy tickets. It was so crowded and we became impatient. 'When can we go into the park?' Dad asked. It took thirty minutes. We felt annoyed.

After a while, we entered the park at half past ten. I saw a pig cartoon character who was holding some balloons. I rushed to it excitedly and asked, 'Can I take a photo with you?' I felt over the moon.

Suddenly, the cartoon character was stumbled by a stone carelessly. 'Oh!' I was shocked and frightened. The cartoon character was wild with fright and fell down. He didn't hold the balloons tightly, so they flew in the sky. He also broke his leg. He was in pain! My parents found the staff and he took the cartoon character to the hospital. The balloons were gone because they all flew in the sky. There were no more balloons for the children, so the staff bought some new balloons for them.

Finally, I felt upset with my favourite character because he got hurt. 'We should be careful when we are doing things,' Mum said. I agreed with her, and I have learnt a lesson. How was your holiday? Reply soon.

Yours,

Jack

Hi Peter,

How are you? I went to a theme park yesterday. It was an unforgettable day because something interesting happened.

Yesterday I went to the theme park with my parents because it was my birthday. We queued up to buy tickets. It was very boring and hot. We waited for thirty minutes.

After thirty minutes, we finally entered the theme park. Just then I saw my favourite cartoon character, Mr Pig. He was holding lots of balloons. I said to Mr Pig, 'I want to take a photo with you.' I was excited and I ran to him. Suddenly, he tripped over a stone. He fell down and the balloons flew away. I felt shocked.

After that, I helped him to take off the pig head. Luckily he didn't get hurt, but he suddenly said, 'Happy birthday to you!' I felt so surprised and touched. I said, 'Thank you!' I looked at my parents and said 'Thank you!'

How about you? Have you had any unforgettable things? Write back soon.

Best regards,

Jack

In the theme park

Hi Peter,

How are you? I went to a theme park yesterday. It was an unforgettable day.

Yesterday, I went to a theme park with my family. We queued up outside the theme park. I said, 'Mum! It was so hot today!' We waited for one and a half hours and we were all wet.

After that we entered the park at two thirty in the afternoon. We saw a cartoon character holding some balloons. I ran to him and asked, 'Can I take a picture with you?' I felt excited. When the cartoon character took a picture with me, he fell down suddenly because he was fainted. I woke him up and asked, 'Are you okay?' I brought him to a bench and he took off his costume. Then he rest for a while. Luckily, he was getting better after he drank a glass of water. At last we took a picture with him. He said, 'Thanks a lot.'

I felt joyful and this is the most memorable day in my life, because I helped someone!

Write soon.

Love,

Jack
