

A day in the market

It is Sunday. Peter and his mum go to Tai Tai Market because they want to buy some fruit.

Then, they go to a fruit shop. They are choosing some oranges. There is a girl. She is choosing some apples, too.

Then, Peter sees a man. He stands behind the lady. Oh! He shouted, 'There is a thief.' Peter is scared.

Then, Peter shouts at the man. The man runs away. His mum shouts at the man. Peter sees a policeman. He catches the thief. Peter and his mum clap their hands. They are happy.

A day in the market - Good work

It is Sunday. Peter and his mum go to Tai Tai Market. They want to buy some fruit because they want to make fruit salad.

Then, they go to the fruit store on the second floor. They are choosing some fruit. There is a lady. She is choosing some fruit too. After that, Peter sees a strange man. He stands between the lady and Peter. He is stealing the lady's purse quietly.

At last, Peter tells his mum that a stranger is stealing the lady's purse. Peter's mum reminds the lady. The lady screams out loud. People around are trying to help her. Suddenly, a strong man catches the thief. Then someone called 999 and passed him to the police. Peter is happy because he helps others. His mum is proud of him.
