

A Story about My Friend - Good work

I have a good friend. She is Fiona. She is good at Music and Visual Arts. She can play the recorder and draw pictures too. She is kind. She looks after me when I have a fever. She doesn't play tricks on me or shout at me.

One day, her brother is ill. Fiona is sad and worried. 'Don't worry! Your brother will be OK! Let's play in the park,' I suggest. We play musical chairs. We listen to the music and Fiona takes a chair when the music stops. She wins.

In the end, Fiona is tired but happy again. We have a great time.
